Worksheet: Covid-19: What does it really teach us?

(Korrekte Lösungen in rot)

1. We are in the middle of a historical crisis. Here are some words you will come across in English media. Match the words above with the correct sentences below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>“Stay at home”</th>
<th>a pandemic</th>
<th>panic-buying</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Coronavirus/Covid-19 is a disease that has spread across the world.</td>
<td>As a result of this, many supermarkets have run out of toilet paper.</td>
<td>Many states are implementing such orders. It means that you must stay at home unless you want to go shopping etc.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Which other words do you associate with the current situation?

_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

2. In 2015, Bill Gates did a TED Talk on “The next outbreak: We’re not ready!”

Watch it online: https://www.ted.com/talks/bill_gates_the_next_outbreak_we_re_not_ready

Tick the right answer(s):

a. When Bill was a kid, people worried most about …

☐ World War III ☐ a nuclear war ☐ climate change ☐ diabetes

b. Bill said, a virus could kill … of people.

☐ hundreds ☐ thousands ☐ millions

© 2020 Friedrich Verlag - Autorin: Theresa Summer, Mitherausgeberin Englisch 5-10
c. Ebola: The biggest problem was, that we didn’t have …
   - enough doctors
   - a system at all
   - international aid

d. We need:
   - strong health systems
   - medical corps
   - pair medical & military
   - simulations
   - strong health systems
   - to run germ games
   - research

Need help? You can find a “transcript” online or watch it with subtitles.

3. Phone an old person you know (grandma/grandpa, a neighbour, family friend etc.) and find out how he/she is. Tell him/her about Bill Gates’ TED talk. Ask about their opinion.
   Tip: You might also like to ask if they there is anything you can do for them.

   Send your texts to your English teacher!